From us to you...

July 2019

To the WRGN listening family,

"Don't let your eyes deceive you..." Those were my words to my 17-year-old daughter as she began to help me with the foundation for a shed. I had already been working for several hours when she came out to give me a hand. I knew the slight slope I was working on made things look off-kilter, even when they were perfectly level! She gave me a blank look until I explained to her how many times I had misjudged "level" visually. That bubble level kept us on track until the job was finished.

The Scripture gives a similar warning, telling us in Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately sick; who can understand it?" How often have we looked at a circumstance, situation, or relationship, and our heart is telling us one thing, but the Scripture says another? It is for this reason we need to know and understand what the Word of God has to say. It can keep us from making mistakes again and again. Interesting how this goes completely against the advice the world would give. How often we hear the statement "follow your heart!"

I am so grateful for the Bible teachers on WRGN who daily preach the truth of God's Word. It is the level on which we need to build the foundation of our lives. I am also grateful for each of you who help make this station possible. As a noncommercial listener-supported station, we could not do it without you! If you have not joined us in ministry, you can do it today with a gift of any amount using the enclosed envelope, or by calling 800-245-3688.

Building on a firm foundation,

Tim + Heather

Jeff Tomassacci and his sister Jenessa grew up listening to WRGN. They were frequent callers to Bible Quiz, an early show on WRGN. A little research may even unearth a picture of them in early RadioGrams, but we'll leave that for another time! It was so good to see them at a recent event and meet Jenessa's husband, Shane Drumm.

Zach Rollison from Foundations Christian Counseling shared with Wake Up Right listeners about an Addictions Seminar being held at the Tunkhannock Public Library on Saturday, July 20 from 9 am to noon. The morning seminar is being hosted by Grace Fellowship Church and is free and open to the community. For more information call 570-836-7922.

New at the Library

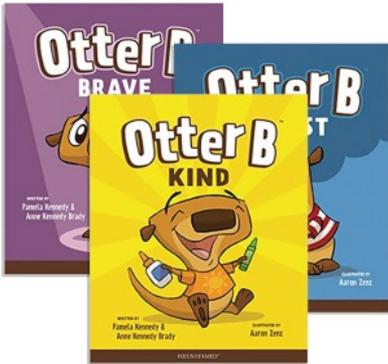

Our author of the month is award-winning and bestselling author Lauraine Snelling who has written over 80 books. She writes inspirational novels about real issues centered on themes like forgiveness, loss, domestic violence, and cancer in both contemporary and historical genres. Lauraine enjoys helping others reach their writing dreams by teaching at writer's conferences across the county. She and her husband, Wayne, live in the Tehachapi Mountains of California with Lapcat, and "The Girls" (three golden hens).

Pundits are writing the obituary of historic, orthodox Christianity, but pastor and author J. D. Greear disagrees. Jesus promised to build his church. He said that the gates of hell would not prevail against it. The church is not going away. Along with this promise, Jesus gave clear instructions for how the church would prevail. He promised to build it on the rock of the gospel. The most pressing need for Christianity today is not a new strategy. It is not an updated message. It is a return to keeping the gospel Above All.

The Otter B books is a series of children's books from mother and daughter writing team, Pamela Kennedy and Anne Kennedy Brady that are intended to teach young children basic biblical character traits. In Otter B Kind, Otter decides to make a present for his friend Franklin the Frog who is sick. In Otter B Honest, Otter breaks his father's watch while playing pirates with his friend. After trying to hide the broken watch from his father, he learns that honesty is best. In Otter B Brave, Otter is afraid to do show-and-tell at school. After Otter's dad tells him that God gives us friends to help us be less afraid, Otter decides to use his friend as his show-and-tell item. Each book in the series ends with a rhyme that reinforces the book's theme. These books are great for preschool and kindergarten age readers.

Ride for Radio 2019

Despite all of the rain we had this spring, our 8th Annual Ride for Radio was a perfect start to summer! Blue skies, bright sunshine, and mild temperatures were the perfect recipe for a great day! Motorcyclists began arriving at the WRGN studios and enjoyed coffee, orange juice, bagels, and pastries donated by Bakery Delite in Plains.

After brief instructions from our ride leader, Terry Daltroff, kickstands went up at 10:30 and the riders/passengers were off followed by two classic cars, a 1977 Porsche and a 1954 Chevy.

Riders were from all over Northeastern PA including Hazleton, Dallas, Benton, Plymouth, Greenfield Twp, Wilkes-Barre, and we also had a couple from Philadelphia and a driver from Conklin, NY join us. The route went from Pikes Creek, through Noxen, Centermoreland, Kunkle, and Harveys Lake, then back to the WRGN studios. Special thank you to Charlene at the Centermoreland Grocery and Deli who let us stop mid-way through the ride!

After their 70-mile ride, a delicious picnic lunch was enjoyed under our pavilion. Wendy Saxe and her team of volunteers put together a great spread including burgers, hotdogs, sausage and peppers, wimpies, corn casserole, homemade potato salad, and macaroni salad. Desserts were provided by Leave it to Donna Catering and Maggie G's Candy Cabin. Thank you, Donna and Margaret!

The Here & Now Effect provided Christian music; special thanks to Pastor David Pegarella and Michael Deckman for spending their Saturday with us! Ellen Belles put together a great list of sponsors, many of whom provided gift cards for our special giveaway! Thank you to all who helped make our 8th Annual Ride for Radio a success!
